

PLEADING GUILTY, WIFE SLAYER WAITS FOR SANITY TEST

Bigamist Watson Rushed to Trial and Sentence To Be Pronounced Monday.

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—Preparations are under way to-day for the examination of James P. Watson, wife slayer, as to his sanity. In the meantime he is in jail awaiting sentence after pleading guilty to an indictment for murder.

Judge Willis fixed Monday morning at 10 o'clock as the time for passing sentence. The entire proceeding of judging Watson, taking him into court, receiving his plea of guilty and returning him to his cell took less than an hour of time.

The Grand Jury convened at 10.30 A. M. Five minutes later District Attorney Woodruff, Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran, Under Sheriff Al Manning, Deputy Sheriffs Bell and Costa, who arrested Watson, and Coroner's Clerk Aggeler of San Diego County, who took Watson's testimony at the inquest held over the body of the slain woman, appeared in the Grand Jury room. The confession of Watson to the killing of the woman, his admissions before the Coroner's Jury, and the fact of the finding and identification of the body were quickly told the jury. A true bill charging murder in the first degree was voted by the nineteen men composing the jury, was signed and reported to the court.

Watson, who was being held in readiness in his cell, was brought into court shortly after 11 o'clock.

"To the indictment how do you plead?" asked the Prosecutor.

Watson's answer was in so faint a whisper it could not be heard three feet away. In reality his lips only shaped the word "Guilty." Immediately Judge Willis fixed the time for sentence and announced:

"As there seems to be some doubt as to this man's sanity, I will appoint two physicians to examine him and report to me." The prisoner was immediately returned to his cell.

When Watson arrived at the hall of justice he faced a battery of newspaper photographers. He protested hotly to his attorney against his picture being taken. Mrs. Elizabeth Williamson, one of his many wives, looked at him from a window of the Sheriff's office as he was taken into court.

The appointment of physicians to examine into Watson's mental condition was a surprise to the prosecution, and Woodruff announced he would fight any attempt of the prisoner to escape the penitentiary on an insanity plea.
